Dear Sir,

Letter of Appreciation

We wish to place our sincere appreciation of your service during the past six years. During this period we found that you and your partner and the other team members have provided a very good service and their commitment towards the work is highly commendable.

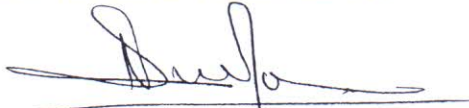

I wish to make a special note of the current month in which we conducted 04 auctions in different locations and sold 475 vehicles which is a record of our history as well.

Kindly convey our thanks to all your staff members and we will assure continuous patronize with your organization in future as well.

“Good Luck”

Thanking You,
Yours faithfully,
